CEO/Executive Director: Dr. Nina Dudnik

Board Chair: Dr. Tim Fenton Thermo Fisher Scientific

Mission Statement: Seeding Labs invests in exceptional scientists in developing countries who have limited resources, but limitless potential. We provide reduced-cost lab equipment and training, and foster professional networks in order to enhance higher education, support vital research, and create a more connected global scientific community.

- Needs Statement:
1. Funding to support operations and shipments of equipment to our Instrumental Access partners in developing countries.
 2. Donated high-quality laboratory equipment ranging from consumables to analytical chemistry and molecular biology instruments.
 3. Sponsorship for training STEM personnel in maintaining and installing equipment.
 4. Sponsorship for scientific exchange and ambassador programs.

Impact Statement: Since 2003 Seeding Labs has worked with scientists at 49 institutions in 28 countries around the world. We have made over $4,900,000 worth of equipment available to scientists for teaching over 17,000 students and conducting research on issues ranging from climate change to HIV to malaria. In 2017 we will provide 15 more institutions in 13 countries with much needed lab equipment. Five of these countries are new to Seeding Labs. We will continue to expand our strategic corporate partnership programs.
